With the success of ADLAS 2006 in Cebu, Philippines and ADLAS 2007 in Sentosa, Singapore, we are happy to announce the 3rd ADLAS meeting of minds!

As always, ADLAS adheres to its commitment to bring together select dermatologists from Asia with special interest in Lasers / Dermatologic Surgery, and combine this meeting of minds with the natural delights of sun, sea and sand, to give us all a chance to meet friends and colleagues in a relaxed enticing atmosphere!

With the positive comments we have received, we will continue our unique set-up of PANEL & CASE DISCUSSIONS, not Plenary lectures found in other meetings. Plenary talks are confined to updates by a keynote speaker from the West but all panelists will be from the different countries in Asia, to ensure relevant and stimulating discussions.

We are pleased to enunciate that the panelists are self-sponsored, enabling us to have unbiased presentations and keep the registration fees as minimal as possible.

We hope to see you in this 3rd ADLAS meeting of minds

*We had fun in Cebu in 2006
& Sentosa in 2007...*
See you in Pattaya this 2008!
